

JOIN A LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITY

for 2018-19 in your residence hall at the University of Kansas.

HONORS PROGRAM Templin Hall

This community is for KU Honors Program students. All Templin residents must maintain a competitive GPA.

ENGINEERING Self Hall

This voluntary community brings together first-year engineering and computing students for social and enrichment opportunities.

SOCIAL WELFARE GSP Hall

The School of Social Welfare Living Learning Community provides access to career exploration, skill development, community-engaged service events and academic success.

ACADEMIC ACCELERATOR PROGRAM Downs Hall

This community is for incoming international and U.S. born students. Students will engage in an enriched global community with others who wish to explore different cultures.

JOURNALISM Hashinger Hall

The journalism community will be built around career exploration, resource development and academic success.

TO JOIN A COMMUNITY

- At ku.edu choose "myKU" from the uppermost blue navigation bar. Use a desktop computer, not a tablet or phone.
- Enter your KU online ID and password.
- Click "Services," "Student Housing" and "Sign into Housing."
- Click "Select a Space and Dining Plan." If you have a preferred roommate you will need the roommate PIN and dining plan.

WHEN YOU GET TO THE HOUSING OPTIONS SCREEN, SELECT YOUR LEARNING COMMUNITY.

As students self-assign or are pulled-in as roommates, remaining spaces in a room or suite are available for selection by other students.
