

Scholarship Hall Director

The University of Kansas • Student Housing

General: As a senior member of the residence life staff, each Scholarship Hall Director (SHD) is part of KU Student Housing and Student Affairs and reports to a Residence Life Complex Director. SHDs hold live-in, 75% positions, and are responsible and accountable for the general supervision and management of all aspects of two scholarship halls and their staff. Each scholarship hall is a cooperative living group housing approximately 50 undergraduate students who spend time each day providing meal service for each other, cleaning and maintaining assigned areas, planning mutually beneficial programs, and expanding skills and abilities to work and live in a cooperative environment.

The SHD position does not allow for regular student teaching, out-of-town practica, internships, or other extensive extracurricular commitments. Approval must be obtained in advance in order to enroll in a local practicum or internship or to participate in major extra-curricular commitments while the complex is open; such approval would not typically be given in the first year of employment. Required training and development responsibilities include three weeks of training, regular staff meetings, and completion of the Higher Education Graduate Assistantship Competency Tool adapted from the ACPA/NASPA professional competencies.

Equal Opportunity Statement: The university is committed to providing an equal opportunity for all qualified individuals to be considered for employment, benefits and conditions of employment, educational programs and activities, regardless of race, religion, color, ethnicity, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, age, status as a veteran, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, gender identity, gender expression, or genetic information.

University Inclusion Statement: As a premier international research university, the University of Kansas is committed to an open, diverse and inclusive learning and working environment that nurtures the growth and development of all. KU holds steadfast in the belief that an array of values, interests, experiences, and intellectual and cultural viewpoints enrich learning and our workplace. The promotion of and support for a diverse and inclusive community of mutual respect require the engagement of the entire university.

KU Student Housing

Our Mission

Building learning-centered communities through individual support and respect

Our Central Values

We advance KU's mission with:

- Engaging communities
- Vibrant physical spaces
- Effective administration

Inclusion Statement

We proudly commit to preparing our students and staff to thrive in a global community. We seek to understand and affirm all identities we serve to develop a culture where individuals challenge assumptions and engage in open discourse. Through representative staff and equitable policies we will continue to serve the evolving needs of our diverse communities.

Requirements: At least one year of residential group living experience, KU enrollment as a graduate student in good standing taking at least 6 and no more than 9 hours per semester (more than 9 hours must be approved in advance). Support for and promotion of the Mission, Values, and Inclusion Statement of KU Student Housing.

Residential staff experience, knowledge of residential curriculum practices or experiences, interpersonal and group presentation skills and experience, experience in student engagement and development, and interest in developing a supportive academic atmosphere.

For most positions, it is recommended that you have a valid driver's license at the time of employment and ability to lift up to 50 lbs. Some night, weekend, and holiday duty responsibilities.

Compensation: Salary is $15,180 for the academic year (690 paid biweekly for the 22 payroll periods). A furnished apartment including utilities is provided as well as meals when the dining centers are serving. State of Kansas group health insurance is available.

Major Job Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

Inclusion

- Participate in and facilitate trainings regarding working with diverse student populations.
- Respond to bias-related incidents, support the department's commitment to creating safe and inclusive communities.
- Facilitate community dialogues to establish shared expectations and standards of living that promote student success socially, academically, and personally.
- Engage with residents on global, national, and campus issues dealing with inclusion, equity and discrimination.
- Develop communities focused on valuing human diversity and promoting awareness of different identities.

Supervision

- Supervise, select, train, and evaluate 4 paraprofessional staff (Proctors and Food Board Managers) in the performance of their assigned duties.
- Model good judgment, ethical behavior, respect for laws and policies, and a positive, cooperative attitude.
- Maintain regular staff and individual meetings with direct reports and complex team.
- Ensure undergraduate staff understands departmental and university mission/vision.
- Motivate undergraduate student staff and empower them to promote resident growth and development.
- Frequent formal and informal communication with undergraduate student staff regarding responsibilities, personal wellbeing, and academic success.
- Support and recognize individual and group achievements

Advising

- Advise hall governance in two Scholarship Halls and aid in development of student leaders including facilitating development of programming initiatives.
- Attend assigned hall meetings and serve as a liaison for KU Student Housing.
- Host regularly scheduled individual meetings with hall government presidents and treasurers.
- Advise hall government executive board members in planning initiatives to establish and maintain community traditions.
- Provide on-going leadership development opportunities to address group needs.

Student Learning

- Execute the KU Student Housing residential curriculum model and create learning-centered communities using the model to promote individual support and respect.
- Facilitate the development of group-centered, cooperative academic communities with emphasis on student input, responsibility, and decision-making.
- Promote positive interactions and decisions, which affirms individual responsibility, demonstrating respect for others, personal boundaries and University property.

Student Conduct

- Participate in the student conduct process as a University hearing officer and adjudicate conduct cases.
- Coach and train staff in conduct response and reporting protocols.
- Document incidents through the use of the Maxient system.
- Follow up with staff and students regarding their participation in an incident.

Crisis Management

- Participate in rotating senior staff duty coverage system for area housing between 750 and 1600 residents.
- Respond as a member of the senior staff as crisis situations occur; intervene and make referrals as appropriate to individual and/or group concerns.
- Follow up with students after crisis situations.

Community Building/Resident Engagement

- Develop relationship with students.
- Be present at undergraduate staff events, hall government events, and periodically at traditional building events.
- Have available office hours open to residents.
- Engage in follow-up and aftercare with students regarding academic and conduct concerns.

Administration

- Participate in staff orientation, training and development, and department committees.
- Serve as liaison between the hall community, Student Housing, Student Affairs, and the larger university community.
- Serve as a representative of Student Housing or Student Affairs on assigned committees.
- Other administrative opportunities and/or expectations are complex-specific and may include but are not limited to: occupancy management, budgeting, etc.
- Facilitate all building opening and closing procedures.
- Monitor the physical maintenance of the complex in cooperation with custodial and maintenance staff in Facilities Services.
- Others duties as assigned.

Professional Development: Graduate Assistants receive financial support which can be used for attendance and participation at a regional conference. Additionally, graduate assistants serve on departmental committees and have the opportunity to pursue collateral or university committee experience. Graduate assistants may also co-advise university student groups, as well as co-teach the UNIV 101 First-year Seminar.

State of Kansas Weapon Policy: Beginning July 1, 2017, any individual who is 21 years of age or older and who is lawfully eligible to carry a concealed handgun in Kansas shall not be precluded from doing so on state university campuses except in buildings and areas of buildings for which adequate security measures are provided, and except as otherwise prohibited by law. For additional details please see <http://publicaffairs.ku.edu/weapons-laws-policies-affecting-ku>